

ARE WE THERE YET?

LRC WRITING COMPETITION

To celebrate the 2012 National Year of Reading, the LRC has also organized a writing activity based on award winning author and illustrator Alison Lester's book Are We There Yet?, which tells the story of her family's journey around Australia in a camper van.

Now it's your turn:

Tell us about your home town or a special place you have visited in Australia or anywhere in the world.

The place could be in local Dandenong or in faraway Afghanistan. Or tell us about a special journey that you have made that has had a deep effect on your life.

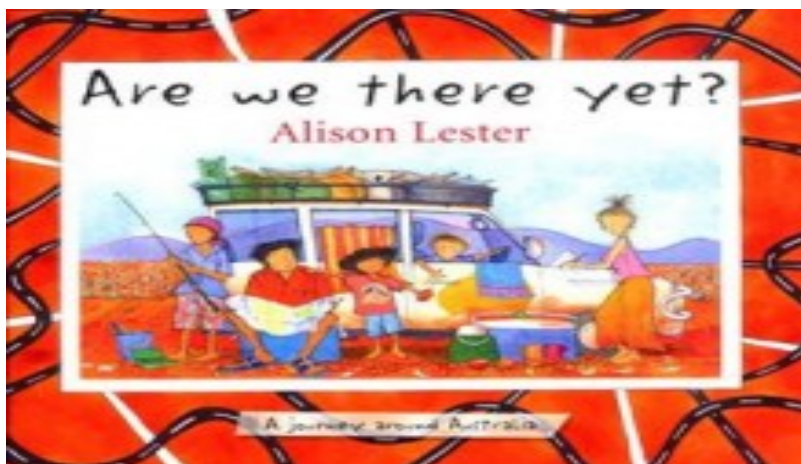

Write a picture book, letter or a short story between 400 to 1,000 words and hand it in to the LRC (Library)

Writing Competition Closes:
Thursday, 16th August 2012

1st Prize: $50 JB Hi-Fi Voucher

2nd Prize: $25 JB Hi-Fi Voucher

3rd Prize: $25 JB Hi-Fi Voucher

Come & see our display in the LRC for inspiration!

Have a read of Alison Lester's book!
